THE TRAMP OF ARMED TROOPS

JAPAN POURING THOUSANDS INTO COREA

On the Way to Fight Russians and Attack Port Arthur—Engagement Expected at Wiju—Various Reports.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 18.—The general staff announced to day the war office is willing to accept volunteers for service in the far east. They must be under 45 years of age and have had military training.

STEAMER WAS NOT CAPTURED.
Tien Tsin, Feb. 18.—The British steamer Tien Tsin, believed to have been captured by Russians, arrived to day from Shanghai.

The departure of Chinese imperial troops from Pao Ting Fu to Kin Chau to guard the frontier has been postponed until Feb. 21.

LARGE NUMBER KILLED.
Berlin, Feb. 18.—A Clematis dispatch reports seventeen officers and 439 men of the Russian warships Vireg and Korietz were either killed or drowned when the vessels were destroyed.

RUSSIAN TROOPS ON YALU RIVER.
Soul, Feb. 18.—Three thousand Russian troops are reported to be encamped on the Yalu river opposite Wiju.

PASSENGERS RELEASED.
Nagasaki, Feb. 18.—Five Russian passengers detained on board the steamer Argon and one on the steamer Ekaterinofsky were released at Sasebo to day and allowed to proceed to their destination.

RUSSIA WILL ACCEPT NOTE.
Paris, Feb. 18.—Following another conference between Foreign Minister Delcasse and Ambassador Porter it is understood Russia's formal admission to the American note will be announced within a week. It now appears responsible Russian officials have made known that with the exception of Manchuria from operation of the note Russia saw no objection to its acceptance. This is considered sufficient to permit France to accept with a reservation excepting Manchuria, but Russia's formal action awaits submission for approval of the czar. The foreign office has been advised of Italy's acceptance.

BRITISH STEAMER FIRED ON.
Shanghai, Feb. 18.—The British steamer Hsiping, which arrived here to day, reports she was fired on by Russian ships and forts when seeking shelter in the outer roadstead of Port Arthur and was then ordered to Dahly, where she was detained four days in spite of her captain's protests.

CHINESE OFFICIALS DEFIED.
Shanghai, Feb. 18.—The Russian gunboat Manjur remains in Shanghai in defiance of orders of Chinese officials to leave port.

ENGAGEMENT EXPECTED AT WIJU.
Seoul, Feb. 18.—The report that 3,000 Russian soldiers had arrived at Chin Tien Chong, opposite Wiju, on the Yalu river, is confirmed, as is the report that Russians have occupied Wiju itself. They have 3,000 troops at Wiju and the first collision is expected somewhere in that vicinity.

REPORTS DECLARED UNFOUNDED.
Tokio, Feb. 18.—Reports that Russian troops have crossed the Yalu river and are moving south with the object of seizing Ping Yang are declared to be unfounded. A reliable report from Wiju states Russians are assembling in force on the north side of the Yalu, but they have not attempted to cross the river or

GERMANS OFFER HOSPITALS.
Berlin, Feb. 18.—Emperor William has notified the czar and mikado German hospitals at Kiau Chou and Yokohama are available for care of men wounded during the war.

REVOLUTIONISTS ACTIVE.
Moscow, Feb. 18.—Panic-mongering has reigned for several days at Rostoff. The revolutionary party is vigorously at work and the state of affairs in the Caucasus is also unsatisfactory and the government is apprehensive of disorder.

REPAIRING.
Port Arthur, Feb. 18.—Repairs to Russian warships damaged during the bombardment of Feb. 9 are rapidly proceeding. The Zoravitch, Retvisan and Pallad will soon rejoin the fleet. Work is being carried on with all dispatch. The mishap was not so great as at first believed.

About a hundred Russian families who left Japan intending to proceed to Port Arthur and other points are now living at Shanghai under protection of the Russian consul.

A magnate named Salabek has arrived at Port Arthur, asking the viceroy's permission to go to the front with 5,000 Kurd horsemen. He only asks the government to provide for transport of the men, their horses and arms. Admiral Alexieff declined and referred Salabek to the czar.

The railroad is undamaged and Port Arthur is calm. Troops are eagerly awaiting an opportunity to meet the Japanese in an open fight.

TO WAIT REASONABLE TIME.
Washington, Feb. 18.—The interstate commerce commission to day announced as a result of its investigation of feasibility of requiring railroads to publish tariffs for movement of export and import traffic the same as domestic traffic it has decided to leave the matter in abeyance for a time.

If the interstate commerce act is not amended within a reasonable time so as to relieve the commission of necessity of requiring such publication, the commission holds it will be its duty to enforce publication of import and export rates in the manner now provided by law, but so far not complied with.

GOVERNOR ADVISES AGREEMENT.
Denver, Colo., Feb. 18.—Governor Peabody has strongly advised mine owners in the Cripple Creek district to make terms with union miners who have been on strike since last August. He said: "I think I have done my duty in bringing about law and order in the district and now I will take the burden from my shoulders and place it on yours."

BESEIGED.
Paris, Feb. 18.—An eminent military authority connected with one of the embassies said to day that Port Arthur was practically besieged, and it was a serious question whether this would not compel either abandonment or surrender of the fortress with its men and material. The grounds for this belief were stated to be as follows:

"Admiral Togo's ships, on watch at entrance of the port, prevent ingress or egress, thus establishing a virtual blockade and cutting off the chances of relief from seaward. Japanese troops near New Chwang and other points on the Liao Tung peninsula are able to interrupt the railroad forming the line of communication and supplies between Port Arthur and Harbin. The result is gradual exhaustion of Port Arthur within Japanese naval and military lines. It will require bold action on the part of Russians to prevent the final accomplishment of this objective and slow reduction of Port Arthur."

FALSE REPORTS.
London, Feb. 18.—The Japanese legation here received an official dispatch from Tokyo to night saying it was not true that any Japanese vessels had been destroyed so far in any of the naval engagements and that all necessary repairs had already been made. The Japanese fleet remains intact.

This message also denies the report that Japanese were driven from the neighborhood of Kin Chau after a skirmish in which 150 Japanese were taken prisoners, and declares the Japanese made no attempt to land at Pigeon bay. It says Japanese forces have, up to the present, made no attempt to land at any point where they could come in contact with Russians and that consequently all reports of land action and Japanese losses are untrue.

MAY BE IDENTIFIED.
Marshalltown, Iowa, Feb. 18.—An unknown man, recently found frozen to death in Chicago, is believed to have been John Brown, a farmer of Tama county, who went to Chicago with livestock and who has been missing nearly two weeks. Friends of the missing man to day left for Chicago to identify the body. When Brown left the Union stock yards, Chicago, he carried a large sum of money.

SERIOUS ASPECT.
Paris, Feb. 18.—The Figaro publishes a telegram said to be from a high Russian official and sent from the frontier, saying that Count von Schenk, commander of the Emperor Alexander regiment of German guards, of which the czar is honorary colonel in chief, was received by the czar Monday and handed to his majesty an autograph letter from Emperor William on the war in the east and especially on the subject of Great Britain's attitude.

Continuing the Figaro's correspondent says official circles in Russia continue to count on Germany's unreserved support and discuss openly possible change of the equilibrium of Europe which might result from grouping together of Russia, Germany and France, taken in connection with the anti-British feeling.

The increasing possibility of war with Great Britain is discussed without reserve in Russian military circles. Rear Admiral Rojestvenski, chief of the general staff of the navy, has said it was impossible, according to the Russian official who telegraphs the Figaro, to send to Port Arthur all naval officers who want to go there because they may be required in battle.

FAMILY TRAGEDY.
Edwardsville, Ill., Feb. 18.—In the presence of his wife and three children William W. Grango to day shot and killed John E. Lewis, the foster father of his wife. The tragedy grew out of a family quarrel. Grango surrendered himself.

IN EVIDENCE
Head of Alleged Murdered Man to be Used in Court

Oskaloosa, Iowa, Feb. 18.—The body of John Lewis was exhumed at Freeman to day and the head taken to Sigourney to be used as an exhibit in the trial of Mrs. Belle Lewis, charged with the murder of her husband. The state introduced witnesses to day tending to prove that Mrs. Lewis was often seen in company with Ira Glassford and that upon one occasion, just prior to Lewis' death, she told her neighbors she had given her husband a dose of flannel preparation containing poison.

CONGRESSIONAL DEBATES
THE CANAL QUESTION IN THE SENATE

House Passes the Fortifications Bill—Spirited Discussion Over Its Consideration—General News of the Capital

SENATE.
Washington, Feb. 18.—The Panama canal question again to day was the uppermost topic in the senate and Spooner spoke on that subject during the greater portion of to day's session. He discussed many phases of the subject, sustaining the course of the president throughout the proceedings resulting in the independence of Panama. He also contended for the superiority of the Panama route over that of Nicaragua. He was interrupted frequently by Morgan.

Early in the day Tillman moved to reconsider the vote of last Monday by which the bill to grant $150,000 to former Queen Liliuokalani was defeated, but further consideration of the matter was not pressed.

HOUSE.
Washington, Feb. 18.—The house to day passed the fortifications appropriation bill. The Philippine question was the subject of a brief but spirited discussion while the bill was under consideration. An item in the bill provided for fortifications in insular possessions. Smith (Dem., Ky.) proposed an amendment to preclude the use of any part of the appropriations for fortifications in the Philippines, holding that an expenditure of a sum necessary properly to fortify the islands was not warranted until the future of the archipelago shall have been determined.

A party alignment on the proposition immediately followed. Williams (Miss.), minority leader, taking up the fight for the amendment. He said the dominant power had not yet declared itself as to the future of the islands and he did not want the lesson taught that one people might rule another people.

Payne (N. Y.) and Smith (Iowa), on the Republican side, seconded Littaur (N. Y.), who was in charge of the bill, in opposing the amendment, declaring it was the duty of this government to afford protection to the people of the Philippine islands. By a strict party vote of 80 to 32 the Smith amendment was lost.

Robinson (Dem., Ind.) made an unsuccessful effort to secure an amendment to prevent the use of any portion of money appropriated for experimental purposes for the Langley airship experiments.

General debate on the bill developed into a political discussion. Hill (Rep., Conn.) started it by asking what the Democracy stands for, addressing himself chiefly to Williams (Miss.) and taking occasion to criticize Democratic assignments on committees which had been made on recommendation of the minority leader.

Williams assumed full responsibility for appointments among the minority, and comparison of conditions north and south resulted.

Wade (Dem., Iowa) predicted that the Democratic party will be victorious in the coming campaign and declared the west favored tariff revision.

Wade spoke on the tariff question and reciprocity with Canada. Speaking of the attitude of the people of his state toward the tariff he quoted from a communication which he said was sent to Mr. Henderson by Republicans of Iowa when he was speaker, appealing for revision of the tariff schedules, and quoted from the last inaugural address of Iowa's governor. The people of Iowa and the northwest have changed their tariff views, he said. He had seen a statement that the department of justice was waiting for a formal complaint, alleging violation of injunctions by beef concerns before taking action. If they will go beyond the Mississippi, he said, they will find all the complaints they want.

Wade grew eloquent as he predicted Democratic success and was loudly applauded by the minority. He illustrated many of his points with stories which provoked laughter on both sides of the house. He was given close attention throughout.

CAPITAL NOTES.
The president to day sent the following nominations to the senate: John P. Jewell, Illinois, consul at Alexandria, Turkey; W. C. Campbell, member Philippine commission; W. T. Thorpe, postmaster at Litchfield, Ill.

The state department has received and accepted the resignation of W. E. Buchanan, American minister to Panama. No successor has been appointed.

The Russian government has informed the state department that, owing to its inability to make what it regards as a suitable display of Russian products at the Louisiana Purchase exposition, it has abandoned the idea of making an exhibit.

As a result of the territorial hearing for statehood the prediction is made from reliable sources that a bill will be reported in the near future from the house committee joining Oklahoma and the Indian territory into a single state under the name of Oklahoma. This state will not be admitted, however, until after allotment of lands by the Dawes commission has been entirely completed and the school land question has been settled. This, it is estimated, will take at least two years. Later a bill will be presented admitting Arizona and New Mexico as a single state, but this latter proposition will not be pressed for some time.

The house committee on foreign affairs to day authorized a favorable report on the Hill resolution, authorizing the president to correspond with governments of the principal maritime powers with a view of incorporating into a permanent law of civilized nations the principle of exemption of all private property at sea, not contraband of war, from capture or destruction by belligerent powers.

The house committee on postoffices and postroads to day agreed to the report of the subcommittee raising salaries of rural free delivery carriers to the maximum of $720 per annum, instead of $600 as at present. The report agreed to take away from such carriers the express and news agency privileges which they now have.

AN OUTRAGEOUS LIE
State Department So Brands Story of Slavery in the Jolo Islands.

Washington, Feb. 18.—In answer to a communication from William C. Dodge, inquiring into reported existence of slavery in the Jolo islands and enclosing newspaper clippings alleging Americans were slave dealers, Secretary Taft has written the following:

"The statement with respect to slavery in the Philippines is an outrageous lie. There are no Americans engaged in the slave trade at all. There has been in the past more kidnapping by the Moros of the bill tribes, but this has been suppressed and there is little of it now. General Wood, with approval of the Philippines commission, is using every endeavor to suppress slavery throughout the Moro provinces, to which it is almost wholly confined."

JAMESON WILL FORM CABINET
Capetown, Feb. 18.—Sir John Gordon Sprigg, premier of Cape Colony, has resigned. Dr. Jameson, of raid fame, has been summoned to form a new cabinet.

Altoona, Penn., Feb. 18.—A west bound freight train on the Pennsylvania railroad collided with a locomotive at Granville shortly after midnight. Christian Crimmel, engine inspector, was killed. The special train bearing the body of the late Senator Hanna enroute to Cleveland was delayed an hour by the wreck.

POLISH JEWS
Of Russia May Have Their Rights and Privileges Restricted.

London, Feb. 18.—A St. Petersburg correspondent of the Jewish Chronicle says the commission now sitting at St. Petersburg charged with revision of laws in force against Jews proposes to recommend that in ten provinces of Poland, where hitherto Jews have enjoyed unrestricted rights, these rights shall now be restricted in every respect to conform to the regulation obtaining within the "pale of settlement." Under this ruling Jewish merchants and professional men will be deprived of the right to employ Jewish clerks and assistants. As it would be almost impossible for Jewish merchants to carry on their business without Jewish clerks and assistants, and as more than half a million Jews reside outside the "pale of settlement," few of whom, if these restrictions were enforced, could remain, it is believed an unexampled emigration of Jews will result if recommendations of the commission are put into effect.

FIRE LOSSES.
Chicago, Feb. 18.—Fire early this (Friday) morning destroyed the four-story building 6 and 8 Wabash avenue occupied by the Great Borden Milk company, S. W. Thum Fly Paper company and Enoch Morgan & Sons, soap manufacturers. Loss, $90,000.

CHURCH SUPPER.
The ladies of the Congregational church served supper in the parlors of the church Thursday evening from 5:30 until 8 o'clock. Despite the unfavorable weather there was a large number present and the menu was an elaborate one, and one of the best ever served by the ladies. A pleasant social hour was spent at the conclusion of the supper.

SHOT DOWN BY ILLINOIS MAN

G. B. JENNINGS OF NEW YORK THE VICTIM

An Elgin Watch Company Employee Uses Revolver—Gives Explanation for the Deed—Is in Custody.

New York, Feb. 18.—George B. Jennings, president of the Jennings Adjustable Shade company, was shot and killed to day in his office in Brooklyn by Frank McNamara, superintendent of one of the departments of the Elgin Watch company's factory at Elgin, Ill. According to clerks who were in the office Jennings and McNamara were engaged in a heated dispute, when McNamara thrust a revolver against Jennings and fired, the bullet passing through his heart, death ensuing instantly. McNamara threw his revolver away and ran into the street, pursued by the clerks, who captured him and turned him over to the police. McNamara refused to say why he shot Jennings. He came here a week ago from Elgin, where, it is said, he has a wife and eight children. Jennings leaves a widow and three children.

McNamara said he came east to collect some debts. It seems several years ago McNamara loaned $2,000 to the shade company and that there had been trouble about its collection.

Elgin, Ill., Feb. 18.—Frank McNamara, who shot and killed George B. Jennings in New York to day, is employed by the Illinois Watch Case company of Elgin. He left here a week ago for Sag Harbor, N. Y., on business for the company and was expected home to morrow. When seen to night McNamara's employers said they had no knowledge of the nature of the controversy that led to the shooting of Jennings. They said McNamara must have been under the influence of liquor when the tragedy occurred. Up to a late hour to night McNamara's family had not been notified of the tragedy.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 19.—After nearly foundering on one side of the Atlantic, the Hamburg-American liner Paltanza, which arrived here to day from Hamburg, was seriously threatened by fire, which broke out when the steamer was within 300 miles of the American coast. For five hours the crew worked with undimmed energy to subdue the flames in the cargo and finally conquered them by the injection of steam into the hold.

The Paltanza left Hamburg Jan. 19. On the 26th she encountered a gale which did considerable damage to the vessel. Two days later more damage was caused by another gale. She put into St. Michael's Feb. 2, and after making repairs proceeded on her way. On the 15th fire broke out, but was subdued as above stated.

John Norris, of New York, also attacked methods of the paper combine and as a remedy for the present situation he favored removal of the duty on wood pulp and urged formation of a pool of newspaper publishers to offer inducements to capitalists to establish independent mills outside the trust and ensure reasonable prices for paper.

The committee to which the subject had been referred reported in favor of accumulation of a fund of $100,000 to promote agitation "for release from the oppression of the paper combination," and the report was unanimously adopted by the association.

ARRIVES IN CLEVELAND

SENATOR HANNA'S BODY PLACED IN STATE

Is Viewed by Thousands—Funeral Services Today at St. Paul's Episcopal Church—Bishop Leonard to Officiate.

Cleveland, Feb. 18.—The body of Senator Hanna reached this city at noon to day. The funeral train steamed slowly up to the Euclid avenue station of the Pennsylvania railroad at that hour and stopped.

For hours a great crowd had been gathering about the station. The station was kept clear and rigid police lines kept back all persons except the few who had passes.

The funeral train consisted of two baggage cars containing flowers, a dining car, two sleepers occupied by friends and members of the funeral party, a private car for the immediate family, and an observation car. In the rear compartment of the observation car, barely visible through the large black curtained windows and surrounded by flowers, rested the big black casket.

As soon as the train came to a stop the members of the party left it. Mrs. Hanna was escorted from the private car to her carriage by her son. The others entered carriages with little delay. The casket was lifted from its bier and carefully borne out to the waiting hearse.

The hearse was Governor Herrick, Judge W. R. Sanders, J. B. Zerbe, Andrew Squire, C. A. Grosshelt, A. B. Hough, Samuel Mather and W. K. McKimble. During the removal of the body almost absolute silence prevailed and many of the men in the great crowd of spectators stood with bared heads in the bitter cold.

A platoon of mounted policemen swung into line in front of the hearse. The members of Troop A, the black horse organization that has participated in many inaugurations, formed about the hearse as escorts.

With some delay while the carriages were being filled and stationed in line the cortege slowly moved down Euclid avenue.

The street was crowded to the curb throughout the distance of two miles from the station to the public square. Policemen kept the crowds out of the roadway for most of the distance. The handsome residences of the upper end of the route and the business buildings of the lower avenue were draped in black and white.

As the hearse and its escort passed the crowds saluted it with lifted hats. Euclid avenue, below Brownell street and the public square, were packed with people, but perfect order was maintained.

During the afternoon thousands of people viewed the remains of the late senator now lying in state in the chamber of commerce. Among the first to look upon the dead was L. C. Hanna, brother of the senator. With his head bared and bowed he stood for fully two minutes gazing steadfastly with tear-dimmed eyes upon the calm features of his brother. Governor Herrick and members of his staff passed before the casket and after them members of special committees, all of whom had been close friends of the senator.

The floral tributes were the most elaborate since the funeral of the late President McKinley. A whole car load of offerings from Washington officials and friends accompanied the funeral train. They included a beautiful wreath from President Roosevelt. Here already were tributes in rich profusion from societies and friends in Senator Hanna's home city.

To night Memorial post, Grand Army, of which Senator Hanna was a member, marched to the chamber of commerce and in the presence of their dead comrade conducted the ritualistic funeral services of their organization. After this service the hall was closed, members of Troop A remaining to guard the body during the night.

Bishop Leonard will deliver a short eulogistic address at the conclusion of the regular funeral services to morrow upon the life of the dead statesman. At the close of the services at the church the body will be conveyed to Lakeview cemetery and after a brief burial service in Wade mortuary chapel will be placed temporarily in the Wade vault, it not having yet been decided where the body shall finally be interred.

CONFERENCE DAY AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

EXERCISES MORNING, AFTERNOON AND EVENING.

A RED LETTER DAY IN THE HISTORY OF THE INSTITUTION

Splendid Address Delivered at Centenary
Church Thursday Evening by President
James of Evanston—Many Visitors Are Present.

A feature unique in the college's history took place Thursday at the Illinois Woman's college. Something similar was suggested in the all-day meeting held last year at the time of Dr. McDowell's visit. This was, however, a response to many friends of the college asking an opportunity to really see the college as it is, and become better acquainted with its several departments of study.

The 8 o'clock recitation of the morning was omitted and the regular work began with the morning chapel at 8:10. The two recitation periods following were used as usual, and the classes were open to visits from the guests. After this the students and friends all repaired to the chapel, where the following program was given:

Ella Delinger.
Exhibition of physical exercises by class in gymnasium.

A well arranged display of student work in the art studies was also on exhibition.

The program entire was one of particular merit and gave a fair expression of the work being done in the literary, physical, musical, elocutionary and art departments.

AFTERNOON PROGRAM.

The program arranged for the afternoon was one of quite different character, representing the thought and earnest hope of the friends for the college, and dealing with the vital influences that make for the school and the unique place it holds in Methodism to day. After a beautiful chorus number rendered by the Glee club, of which the college is so justly proud, the subject of the symposium was announced and speakers introduced. It would be most interesting and certainly very cheering to those tried and true friends of the school, who were not present, could they have listened to all that was here discussed. Optimism surely ruled in the hearts of speakers and hearers. A very few of the points may be summed up thus: "The great educators of to day, who have made possible the great universities, are products of the small college. There is a place and need for the smaller college; for, first, students are not there educated en masse, but taught individually to think for themselves.

"Second: Students come into closer contact with the faculty, one of the greatest influences of the school in formation of character.

"Third: Students have more frequent opportunity of appearing before the public, thereby teaching them to express, develop and practice what they are learning.

"Fourth: Closer contact with nature and through nature to God."

General discussion was opened by Dr. Thompson, of the Northwestern Christian Advocate. He stated that the small college is, if anything, more important than the university. The effective work of the smaller college grows in power and interest and is in reality the heart beat of the nation. The distinct work of such institutions is to develop individuality, strengthen character and inspire to do great deeds.

Other speakers: "The small college is the chief cultivator of democracy of spirit; the college gives regular training; the university, post-graduate study. A promoter of discipline and self-control. Sends out men and women who not only think, but who can and do form opinions; become trained leaders."

Following the discussion came a most pleasing variety in the first appearance of the violin club, known as the Jacobson club. Their playing was characterized by perfect union and harmony of action and tone, exhibiting the best of training.

Miss Austin, lady principal, spoke eloquently upon the spirit of the college. Her words were particularly appreciated by the faculty and students, who, after all create the spirit. Her remarks were forceful and thorough, just to the situation of the present, and encouraging for the future.

Mrs. Lambert represented the alumnae in a beautiful greeting and message. Her closing sentences were: "As home-makers, as missionaries, as teachers, our I. W. C. graduates are not idlers in the world's work." While the I. W. C. cannot point to massive buildings, a large and valuable library and extensive and complete equipment, such as older institutions possess, and which we do most earnestly covet for her; yet, with great and reasonable pride, she may point to her nearly 800 alumnae and in the language of the Roman matrons say "These are my jewels."

The student life and spirit were earnestly and enthusiastically presented by four excellent representatives of the student body. After which Dr. Horace Reed, of Decatur, brought the official program to a close by a witty and at times earnest prophesy for the future of I. W. C.

The program for the afternoon was:

Another great function of the church school in the field of secondary and higher education is to educate the church itself and its membership as to the necessity and desirability of higher education. Take one of our great religious denominations, like the Methodist church. It includes within its membership, counting the members of the families and communities in all the various branches of this denomination, upward of thirty millions of people. Consider what a power for education such a church may be and is, if it develops and works out a system of efficient and high-class church schools. The Methodist church was the result of a protest against certain tendencies in English life. It is probable that the movement would have resulted in its adherents leaving the English church even if they had not been pushed out by the ignorance and intolerance of the clergy at that time. It was too large a movement to remain within the limits of any establishment, and as it went out to its work of evangelism its first message, of course, was to the ignorant, the poor and neglected classes, and it has been the glory of the church ever since that that had been recognized by the church to be the chief part of its function.

The church must enter the field of higher education in a positive and aggressive way for its own sake and for the sake of the things for which it stands. If the church believes sincerely in the truth of a Christian doctrine and the desirability of the Christian life, it would seem to follow almost as a matter of course that it should be interested in the development of educational institutions in which the atmosphere should be favorable to the spread and establishment of Christian truth and to the development of a Christian life.

Now, if the church is going to establish such educational institutions and accomplish by that establishment the purposes it has in mind, then there are certain definite things which it must also do, and without which it cannot hope to accomplish its ultimate result.

It must, first of all, in season and out of season, insist that these institutions, as educational institutions, shall be good—that they shall offer as good facilities for acquiring a college and university training as the institutions supported by the state or by nondenominational effort, for nothing is truer in the long run than that people will not send their children to denominational schools merely because they are denominational schools. Young people go to college and university after all for an education, and they will insist all the more as the community becomes more intelligent upon going to the very best educational institutions for their educational training, and if the church does not furnish these institutions it cannot hold its youth, and, of course, it might not to do so. Fundamental, then, is this proposition, that a church must insist that every institution bearing its name shall be from an educational point of view as good as it can be made, shall be the equal of any institution of similar name and function and purpose in the community.

Secondly, if the church is to secure the advantage which comes from such a scheme of church education, it must have institutions of all grades and all kinds, it must answer, in other words, the demands of the community for higher training. It cannot be satisfied with offering simply the training which the clergyman needs or the religious worker needs in his future occupation. It must educate the layman and provide facilities for the education of the laymen of the church as fully as for the education of the clergyman, if it is to maintain its hold upon its own constituency, and if it is to derive an advantage from such a scheme of education which is hopeful.

In speaking of the Woman's college in particular, President James laid down the following general propositions:

- 1.—The institution has a good location. Jacksonville has a reputation for education which is capital in itself.
- 2.—The institution has a long and honorable record, with many alumnae. This is capital.
- 3.—The institution is a woman's college—a most needed institution, and the need will grow.
- 4.—A good start has been made; a beginning at college work has been made without endowment. Give it endowment and see the result.
- 5.—Do in proportion to your means as your predecessors did forty years ago.

The evening program in full was as follows:

Organ—Prelude ..... Bibb

President Harker is certainly to be congratulated upon the success of "Conference Day." It served to bring together in a most congenial manner a large number of sincere friends of the institution and the result of the conference will no doubt be felt in the months that are to come.

A NIGHT ALARM.

Worse than an alarm of fire is the brassy cough of croup, which sounds like the children's death knell and it means death unless something is done quickly. Foley's Honey and Tar never fails to give instant relief and quickly cures the worst forms of croup. Mrs. P. L. Cordier, of Manington, Ky., writes: "My three year old girl had a severe case of croup; the doctor said she could not live. I got a bottle of Honey and Tar, the first dose gave quick relief and saved her life." Refuse substitutes. Sold by J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

SELECTIONS

THE SHETLAND PONY.

Runs Wild in His Early Days—A Devoted Friend of Man.

When at home the pony is still left very much to himself and during his earlier years runs wild. But he is easily reformed and speedily abandons his wild and odd ways and becomes a devoted friend of man and an admirable worker. So great is their affection for the ponies that the islanders never kill them, but when they are too old for work they allow them to return to the fields and hills and live out the rest of their days in peace. Sometimes the old animals in their wanderings for food will fall over the cliffs and perish. They still reach the age of thirty years or more in their native land, and there is a case on record, but it is probably apocryphal, of a sheltie which lived to be a hundred years old.

Like every other good thing for which a demand has arisen, the prices of shelties have increased in recent years. There has been for a considerable period a large export trade in the ponies, of which there were at one time 10,000 in the islands; but, according to government returns, the number is now about half. In the eighteenth century it was possible to obtain a good sheltie for about $12, and the average price in 1800 was $3 more. Half a century ago a pony could be bought for from $7 to $20, but in 1871 males ranged from $40 to $50, the mares fetching only half that sum, as they were not suitable for pit work, for which the shelties were mostly needed. Since then prices have greatly advanced, and large sums are obtained for choice specimens of the pony, especially when they are wanted for children's use. A yearling will now command from $50 upward.

The sheltie cannot be worked until it is three or four years old and does not reach maturity until it is aged eight or nine years.—Illustrated Sporting News.

Denmark Is Short of Surnames.

Denmark suffers from a quite medieval paucity of surnames, and so inconvenient is this fact becoming that the government has announced its intention of presenting a bill to the legislature sanctioning and encouraging the adoption of new surnames. Such names as Hansen, Petersen and Sverensen are overwhelmingly frequent. It is even said that there are towns of 30,000 inhabitants among whom there will not be found more than twenty different surnames, as many as a thousand different people having the same surname. In these days of records and various registrations, to say nothing of business relations, the comedies of error arising from such a state of things must be numerous.—London Globe.

Why Jones of Nevada Left the Senate.

Former Senator John P. Jones of Nevada is looking in splendid health and in his alert step and mental buoyancy seems a bold defier of Father Time. He has a magnificent estate at Santa Monica, on the California coast, and his handsome home at the summit of a high bluff overlooks a wide expanse of sea. He expects to divide the residue of his days about equally between the coast, New York and Washington. "It was not so much that I had grown weary of public life as that it was impossible for me to attend to my private business and at the same time do justice to my constituents," said the senator in answer to a friend who wondered why he should have quit the senate when it was so easy for him to remain there as long as he would. "I am now tied up in mining operations," he continued, "that reach from Alaska to Mexico, and all my time is fully occupied."—Washington Post.

The French Deputy's Perquisites.

A French deputy receives a salary of 9,000 francs. He also receives free railway transportation and free luncheons at the bar of the Palais Bourbon, where many a lawmaker spends more time than he does in the Salle des Seances. Some are accused of taking all their meals at the free lunch counter. A deputy even gets at reduced rates a special brand of cigar which is called "cigars de deputes." With these cigars he treats his influential constituents. In spite of all these privileges there have been many complaints that unless he has a large personal income a deputy cannot live decently. Therefore many members of parliament when they are not well to do have to make up for the insufficiency of their pay by contributing to newspapers or pleading in the courts.—Century.

Salaries of Chefs.

A skillful cook commands a higher salary in New York than the average clergyman or college professor. At present French cooking is most in demand. The professional cooks are divided into two classes—chefs and second chefs. The chefs receive salaries varying from $8,000 to $12,000 a year. The second chefs receive from $1,000 to $1,500.

Another Wonder of Science.

Biology has proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality, causing itching, scaling, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

20TH CENTURY CLUB

Was organized by Jacksonville Women Thursday Afternoon at the Public Library.

At the public library Thursday afternoon a number of west end ladies met and organized the Twentieth Century club. The club has been formed for the purpose of studying the national life and character of the European nations under the direction of Dr. Jane Sherzer, who will make an address at each meeting on some pertinent topic. Owing to her extensive travels in the European countries, Dr. Sherzer is well qualified to speak along the lines indicated. She is a close observer and has the happy faculty of relating her observations and experiences in a most fascinating manner. Without exception, the Women's clubs of Jacksonville are strong and vigorous and the Twentieth Century club, the latest to be formed, will no doubt enjoy the same prosperity that has been the fortune of the older organizations.

The charter members of the club met at the library at 2:30 yesterday afternoon, and after the election of officers and the transaction of other business of importance, listened to an address by Dr. Sherzer upon "Russia." The remarks were made very interesting and Dr. Sherzer spoke particularly of St. Petersburg and of the social position of the women of Russia.

The club will meet on the third Thursday of each month and the by-laws provide that the hostesses may invite four guests, and that any member unable to attend the meeting may invite a guest in her stead. The membership is limited to thirty.

The officers chosen at the meeting yesterday are: President—Mrs. Gates Strawn. Vice president—Mrs. J. H. Osborne. Secretary—Mrs. J. Thompson Sharpe. Corresponding secretary—Mrs. J. E. Fairbank. Treasurer—Miss Sue Ellis.

The following is a partial list of the members: Mrs. John A. Bellatti, Mrs. Charles A. Barnes, Mrs. Edward W. Brown, Mrs. W. B. Brown, Mrs. F. H. Carriel, Mrs. Harry Carriel, Mrs. J. P. Dean, Miss Sue Ellis, Mrs. Frank Elliott, Mrs. J. E. Fairbank, Mrs. R. M. Hockenbush, Mrs. J. H. Osborne, Mrs. Frank Robertson, Mrs. J. Thompson Sharpe, Mrs. Gates Strawn, Mrs. H. B. Smith, Mrs. Henry Straker, Mrs. F. H. Rowe, Mrs. George Mathews, Mrs. William Dewey, Miss Ella Tridac and Mrs. James O. Vosseller.

JUSTICE COURTS.

In "Squire Henderson's court, Pete Mason, John Powelson and William Lewis were each fined $3 and costs for drunkenness. Victor DeFreitas was fined $5 and costs for assault and battery and Charles Harrison was assessed $10 and costs for resisting an officer. In the same court Thomas McMahon was arraigned on a charge of assault and battery, but was discharged.

The case against James Tunney and George Ferreira for running slot machines was continued in "Squire Reid's court Thursday, owing to the unavoidable absence of one of the attorneys in the case.

AN ARTISTIC SHOW WINDOW.

"WAY DOWN EAST."

which has been so successful the past five years, will be seen at the Grand on Monday night. It is a delightful play of New England life and will be presented as heretofore under the stage direction of Joseph R. Gristner, who is certainly a master of stage craft. The scenic effects will be very beautiful and elaborate. The farm pictures and the snow storm scene lend themselves well to stage realism. The company is said to have been selected carefully for their individual parts. The sale of seats will open Saturday.

As demonstrating Governor Yates' increased strength over four years ago, it may be said that of the ninety delegates so far selected, now favorable to him, a considerable number were for some other candidate on the first ballot in the convention in 1900. Carroll, Logan and Will counties were sold for Reeves; Grundy was for Carter, and nineteen and one-half of Peoria's votes were for other candidates. He has thus made a gain of nine in Carroll county; eight in Grundy; twenty-five in Will; and five in Logan. In Peoria county he received six and one-half votes on the first ballot, and hence gains fifteen and one-half votes in Peoria. Anything over one vote in Jefferson or Livingston counties will be a clear gain, as he got but one vote out of these counties, and that was in Jefferson. He loses nothing in Perry, as it was for Hancey. He loses nothing in Saline, that county dividing its vote, three for Hancey and four for Reeves. He loses four in Menard, two in Moultrie, one in Pope and two in Shelby. It will, therefore, be seen that Governor Yates has made a decided and most significant gain over four years ago. In every county where the people and not the politicians and subservient press have not been allowed to decide, Yates has won and will continue to win.

HOW THEY STAND.

Up to date nineteen counties in Illinois have held Republican conventions and selected delegates to the state convention. These counties are Carroll, Franklin, Grundy, Jefferson, Lee, Livingston, Logan, McDonough, Menard, Morgan, Moultrie, Ogle, Peoria, Perry, Pope, Saline, Shelby, Will, Whiteside and Williamson.

The aggregate number of state delegates from these counties is 208. They are divided as follows:

For Yates—Carroll, 9; Grundy, 9; Logan, 11; Morgan, 11; Williamson, 9; Will, 25; Peoria, 22; Whiteside, 5.—Total, 98.

For Lowden—Lee, 12; Ogle, 13; Perry, 6; Peoria, 5; Whiteside, 5.—Total, 41.

For Sherman—McDonough, 10; Menard, 4.—Total, 14.

For Hamlin—Moultrie, 4; Shelby, 8.—Total, 12.

For Ross—Saline, 6; Pope, 5.—Total, 11.

For Warner—Logan, 4.

For Davenport—Whiteside, 1.

In addition to the above instructed and undisputed claimed delegates, Franklin county's delegation of five is claimed by Yates, but other claims are that Yates has two, Warner one and Rose one of the Franklin delegation. Jefferson county's delegation of seven will probably divide between Yates, Hamlin and Lowden. Yates and Hamlin having two each, with the other three favorable to Lowden. Livingston county, with a delegation of fifteen, has a candidate for lieutenant governor in the person of Col. Frank Smith, and will doubtless make a fair divide between the gubernatorial candidates.

WHITESIDE COUNTY

Gives Yates 8 Delegates, Lowden 5 and Davenport 1—Convention a Peculiar One

In the Republican county convention, which was held at Morrison, Whiteside county, Thursday, Governor Yates secured eight delegates to the state convention; Lowden five, and Davenport one. The Yates supporters controlled the convention on organization by a vote of 144 to 119 and Governor Yates would have been given a solid delegation of fourteen delegates to the state convention had it not been for a certain ruling of the chairman, W. S. Kilgore, of Sterling, which gave offense to the delegations from Prophetstown and Hume. These delegations protested against what they considered as arbitrary conduct on the part of the chairman and went over to the Lowden camp. The result being a splitting of the delegations. After this defection the Lowden forces controlled the convention by a vote of 144 to 139 on all question but that of state delegates, the result of this issue being as above.

Representative R. R. Hitt was indorsed and as he had already secured the indorsement of the conventions held in Ogle and Lee counties, his return to congress is assured. Moses Dillon, of Sterling, would have been indorsed for the board of equalization had not one delegate from Hume changed his vote, with the result that Edmund Jackson was indorsed instead.

When Jacksonville Citizens Show the Way.

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the dangers of diabetes or any kidney ills when relief is so near at hand and the most positive proof given that they can be cured. Read what a Jacksonville citizen says:

"F. A. Kaule, of 303 East Independence avenue, engineer at the Davis & Snyder ice plant, 12 North Main street, says: 'After being cured myself by Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Dr. H. Lee Hatch's drug store, I recommended them to a friend who was suffering severely and a few days after, seeing him almost as well as ever, he said, 'Doan's Kidney Pills are a splendid remedy.' I had such heavy bearing pains in the loins that I could hardly get up and if I stooped down to do anything my back felt as if it would almost break before I could get straightened up. Medicine did not do me any good. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills recommended I gave my mind to try them. I experienced a soothing sensation through the loins after the first few doses and in a short time the aches and pains disappeared."

UNION MEN WILL BUILD

Splendid Three Story Structure to Be Erected on South Mauvalsterre Street.

At a recent meeting of the Trades and Labor assembly of this city, the trustees of the organization were instructed to consummate the purchase of the Buckingham building, situated at 228 South Mauvalsterre street. This deal has been pending since the old quarters of the Trades and Labor assembly, over Seeburger's store, were leased to the Elks for lodge rooms. Since the first of the year the labor unions of the city have been holding their meetings in Conservatory hall, through the courtesy of Jeffries' Concert band, which holds a lease for that hall, and in the vacant rooms over Trade Palace.

Acting on the instructions of the Trades and Labor assembly, the trustees Thursday afternoon brought the deal to a close, purchasing the building and lot from F. E. Farrell, the price being $1,000. This amount has been raised by assessing the 654 union men in the city and is now in the hands of the trustees. The readiness with which these members gave their proportionate share of the total aggregate sum shows how enthusiastic they are in the movement, and how loyal they are to unionism.

On next Monday morning the work of tearing down the building which now stands on the lot will begin and upon the site a handsome new three-story brick building, 20x60 feet, with an eight-foot basement, will be erected and will serve as a permanent home for the unions of the city.

The building is to be thoroughly modern in every respect and will be supplied with steam heat, electric lights and telephone service. This building is to be erected by the members of the several unions of the city who have agreed to donate their services, so that the actual money cost of the new structure will be merely the price of the material which is to be put into it and much of this will be donated by dealers in the city. Under these conditions the splendid new home of the labor unions will be built at a practically nominal cost.

On the first floor will be located the office, reading and amusement rooms. On the second and third floors suites of rooms will be made, one room on each floor being of a size sufficiently large for meetings of separate unions. The rooms on the two higher floors will be separated by folding doors, so that when a meeting of the Trades and Labor assembly proper, or of a union which has a very large membership, such as the cigarmakers, is desired to be held the doors can be folded and all the rooms thrown into one large assembly room. The smaller rooms will be used for committee meetings, consultations, etc. From basement to roof the structure is to be the work of union mechanics of the various crafts in the city, which is a guarantee that the work will be done in no slipshod fashion. Upon the completion of the building a janitor will be appointed, who will be there day and night.

The trustees, who are James K. Harvey, Eugene Pelham, A. Larson, W. T. Stull and G. Belger, have already been granted a permit by the city to build. The conditions under which the property was bought provide that it can never be sold except to aid in procuring larger quarters, should that step ever become necessary; hence the unions of the city are assured of possessing a perpetual home. The building will be completed by midsummer at least. The laying of the corner stone will be a memorable occasion, as it is expected that all the unions in Jacksonville will participate in the ceremonies of the day.

This building will stand as a monument to the trades unions of the city and will be no small factor in furthering the interests of unionism in Jacksonville. Not many cities the size of Jacksonville are able to boast of their union men owning and controlling a home of their own and certainly no city, regardless of its size, will be able to pride itself on having a finer, more modern or more convenient trades unions headquarters than will Jacksonville when the proposed structure will have been completed.

HON. J. F. STYRON

Cured of Deep Seated Cough and Dangerous Condition by Vinol

Hundreds of people right here in Jacksonville are coughing, sneezing, shivering and trying all sorts of cough mixtures, out-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions which only upset the stomach and fail to cure the condition.

Why waste time and remain miserable when we guarantee our delicious cod liver oil preparation, Vinol? It contains every one of the medicinal elements of cod liver oil without a drop of oil to nauseate and upset the stomach and retard its work, and no sickening drugs. Vinol will cure that hard cold, hacking cough, throat or bronchial trouble, and if it fails we pay back your money.

The Hon. J. F. Styron, of Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I suffered with a deep-seated cough which nothing seemed to help; my head was all stopped up, and my throat sore and irritated. My lungs ached all the time, and I had tried so many remedies without benefit that my stomach was all out of order, and food nauseated me. Vinol was recommended. I dreaded taking it, for I dislike cod liver oil, but to my surprise, the taste of the cod liver oil was disguised entirely; it is delicious and soon it tamed my stomach, restored my appetite, cured my cough and made me feel like a new man. Vinol is a wonderful cod liver oil preparation, and it cures bronchial, lung and stomach troubles quicker than any remedy I ever heard of. I have recommended it to a great many people and always with the best of results."

We wish every person in Jacksonville suffering from a hard cold, hacking cough, throat or bronchial troubles which have run down their systems, would try Vinol on our offer to return money if it fails. Lee P. Alcott, Druggist.

SANGAMON SITUATION.

Fifty-five members of the Republican central committee of Sangamon county met in the Leland hotel in Springfield Thursday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by C. F. Dickerson, of Divernon. The primaries were called for Saturday, March 12, and the convention for Monday, March 14. In the temporary absence of Dr. J. A. Wheeler, the chairman of the county central committee, Logan Hay presided at the meeting.

Dr. Wheeler, the regular chairman, appointed a committee of seven several days ago, who decided to call the primaries for Monday, May 2, so that it is likely that two conventions will be held in Sangamon county.

TO CONDEMN SITE.

United States District Attorney Thomas Worthington, of this city, has filed a petition in the United States circuit court at Springfield, asking for the condemnation of the ground at the corner of East State and East streets in this city, claimed by George Fox Markillie. This plot 138x180 feet, is wanted as a site for the proposed $60,000 government building in Jacksonville, and the part claimed by Markillie is lot 93, which is 60x180 feet. Owing to a defect in the title it is necessary to take these condemnation proceedings in order that the government may secure a perfect title to the property.

JUDGE THOMPSON SUSTAINED

Decision in the Illinois Canal Commission Case Upholds Finding of Local Jurist

Following the adjournment of the supreme court yesterday afternoon came an opinion which practically brings to an end the Illinois-Michigan canal. The decision reversed an opinion handed down in the Sangamon circuit court in the case of Representative Robert E. Burke, of Chicago, against Clarence E. Snively and other members of the canal commission. The supreme court remands the case with instructions to the trial court to enter a perpetual injunction prohibiting the commissioners from using the money appropriated for the maintenance of the water way.

When the bill appropriating $152,250 for the canal came up in the legislature last winter Representative Burke opposed its passage. After it went through he commenced injunction proceedings in the circuit court of Sangamon county. He held in his petition that the passage of the act was in violation of that part of the constitution which prohibits the legislature from appropriating money for the maintenance of railroads and public waterways. Judge Thompson granted a temporary injunction, and later it was dissolved by Judge Creighton. An appeal to the supreme court was taken.

DISSENTING OPINION.

Justices Hand and Wilkin dissent from the majority opinion and file the reasons for their dissent along with the majority opinion. In their dissenting opinion these justices express the belief that after the view has been accepted and acted upon for more than thirty years by the executive and legislative departments of the state that moneys could be lawfully appropriated for this purpose, it should not be set aside. In considering the constitutionality of a statute, they say, it is the duty of the court to hold it constitutional unless the court can say it is clearly in conflict with the constitution. They do not believe such has been shown in this case.

MAJORITY OPINION.

The opinion of a majority of the court is lengthy and sets out in details its answers to the contentions of the appellants. The court gathers that the constitutional intent of the provision relative to the canal is that the power to sell or lease the waterway shall remain with the people; that the control and management thereof, and the operation of the same, if that shall seem wise and best, should be possessed by the legislature, to which power of management, control and operation, there was attached an inhibition against the application of the public moneys to any of the purposes of the canal. The constitutional intent was, and is, the court says, that the canal shall be self-supporting and that the people of the state shall not be taxed to aid it in any way.

After reviewing at some length the debates of members of the constitutional convention, as aiding to a correct determination of the intent of the framers of the instrument, the court says:

WHAT CONSTITUTION MEANT.

"Though it does not aid to the determination of the question of the power of the legislature to make the appropriation in question, it is not inappropriate to remark that the fears entertained by members of the constitutional convention that more modern and more speedy means of transporting passengers and commodities would soon supplant the canal and divert traffic from it, and the canal would become practically of no use as a water way or highway of traffic and commerce and would cease to produce an income sufficient to pay the expenses connected with its management, and would, unless restrained by the constitution, become a regular applicant at the door of the state treasury for appropriations of money of the taxpayers of the state, have been verified. In 1870 the tolls received for the use of the canal aggregated $113,293, but since that year there has been a marked and substantial gradual decrease in such receipts."

Ice Floes in Illinois River—New Court House for Moultrie County.

Springfield—The supreme court decided that the mere fitting of spectacles is not a medical or surgical treatment. Charles Smith was arrested at Peoria, by the state board of health, for violation of the medical act. It was shown that Smith advertised to fit glasses for dizziness, blurring, headache or itching eyes. He professed that glasses so fitted would relieve these troubles. He did not treat, operate or prescribe for any physical complaint or ailment, in the sense of the statute. Mr. Smith was discharged.

NEW WHISKY TRUST.

Peoria—It is definitely stated in Peoria distilling circles that a combination of all the trust and independent whisky concerns was effected in New York last week to be known as the "Distillers' Association of America."

While the alleged purpose of the combination is, as the name would indicate, a mere banding together for the common good, it is said that it will virtually act as a close corporation, controlling both output and price.

ICE FLOES.

Peoria—The mayor and members of the city council are considering the plan of blowing up the ice floes in the Illinois river with dynamite in order to keep the ice from carrying away the bridges. Some of the structures are old and weakened and it is feared that the ice will carry them off their foundations. The dynamiting will cost a large sum.

He often spoke of the pleasure he obtained from it and was very proud of her accomplishments as a musician. At many of the great white house functions, and especially at the diplomatic functions, the president's niece was asked to sing as an especial favor to the foreign envoys.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

This company has now completed the sixth year of its existence. It has paid regular quarterly dividends on its preferred stock at the rate of 7 per cent per annum since the beginning. The first dividend of 1 per cent on the common stock was declared Aug. 15, 1899, payable Oct. 15, 1899, and since that time dividends have been paid on the common stock regularly every quarter at the rate of 4 per cent per annum.

The total number of stockholders of the company immediately after its organization was about 1,300. The total number now is 7,598. Of this number 1,754 are employees of the company; under the plan of enabling employees to buy our preferred stock, paying for it in installments, they have purchased 5,298 shares. This, of course, is exclusive of the large amount of stock, both common and preferred, held by our directors, officers and principal managers.

The financial statement does not tell the whole story of the year just closed. A great work has been accomplished in the improvement of our organization. It has not yet reached its highest efficiency, but we have passed the experimental stage, and our aim is to make it perfect. We know that the policy we are pursuing is the right one; and each year the business of the company becomes more stable and its position more secure.

The quality of our goods is maintained at a high standard. The sales of our advertised package goods are constantly increasing, and we are always enlarging the scope of our advertising, with the effect that the value of our good-will, which has become our most valuable asset, is continually increasing.

In our last report we stated that we were building two large factories, one in New York and one in Chicago, especially for the manufacture of Uneeda Biscuit. Various things conspired to delay the completion of these buildings. The one in New York has just been completed and is now in operation, having proved a complete success. A fire-proof building 100 feet wide by 200 feet long, six stories and basement, equipped throughout with newly invented machinery especially adapted for the manufacture and packing of Uneeda Biscuit, lighted and operated by electricity—we have no hesitancy in saying that it is the most complete biscuit factory in the world.

This factory is built next to and adjoining an existing factory which we had in New York city at the corner of Fifteenth street and Tenth avenue, extending through to Sixteenth street. That factory was the largest bakery in the country; in it was manufactured our general line of goods, including sugar wafers. When we put the new sugar wafer, Nabisco, on the market and advertised it, it immediately developed such a large sale that the space occupied for that branch of the business became insufficient; and at the same time the business on our general line of goods manufactured in our Tenth avenue factory so increased that not only was there no space to furnish further room for the development of the Nabisco business in that factory, but the business of our general line of goods required even the room occupied by the sugar wafer department. Therefore, while the Uneeda Biscuit works were in course of construction during the past year, a piece of ground 125 feet deep front on Fifteenth street by about 85 feet deep, adjoining the new Uneeda Biscuit works, was secured on long lease, and on that plot of ground we at once commenced the erection of another fire-proof building, six stories and basement, which is nearly completed, the upper three stories and basement of which will be devoted exclusively to the manufacture of Nabisco and other varieties of sugar wafers, the lower stories being devoted to our offices.

It may be of interest to state that this plant, practically all under one roof, though separated by fire walls into distinct buildings, is the largest baking establishment in the world and the largest manufacturing plant in New York. An idea of its size will be perhaps best understood when we state that it has twenty-one acres of floor space.

The Uneeda Biscuit works in Chicago is practically finished, the last of the new machinery being now in course of installation. That factory when finished and in operation will be practically a duplicate in its efficiency of the Uneeda Biscuit works in New York, and between these two factories we shall be able to turn out over half a million packages of Uneeda Biscuit a day. We may add that we do not believe this amount to be the limit, by any means, of the consumption of Uneeda Biscuit.

Tired, Nervous Mothers

A nervous, irritable mother, often on the verge of hysterics, is unfit to care for children; it ruins a child's disposition and reacts upon herself. The trouble between children and their mothers too often is due to the fact that the mother has some female weakness, and she is entirely unfit to bear the strain upon her nerves that governing a child involves; it is impossible for her to do anything calmly. She cannot help it, as her condition is due to suffering and shattered nerves caused by some derangement of the uterine system with backache, headache, and all kinds of pain, and she is on the verge of nervous prostration. When a mother finds that she cannot be calm and quiet with her children, she may be sure that her condition needs attention, and she cannot do better than to take

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

It builds up her system, strengthens her nerves, and enables her to calmly handle a disobedient child without a scene. The children will soon realize the difference, and seeing their mother quiet, will themselves become quiet.

Read what the Vice-President of the Mothers' Club at Hot Springs, Ark., says:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will make every mother well, strong, healthy and happy. I dragged through nine years of miserable existence, worn out with pain and weariness. I then noticed a statement of a woman troubled as I was, and the wonderful results she had obtained from your Compound, and decided to try what it would do for me, and used it for three months. At the end of that time I was a different woman, and the neighbors remarked it, and my husband fell in love with me all over again. It seemed like a new existence. I had been suffering with inflammation and falling of the womb, but your medicine cured that, and built up my entire system, till I was indeed like a new woman."

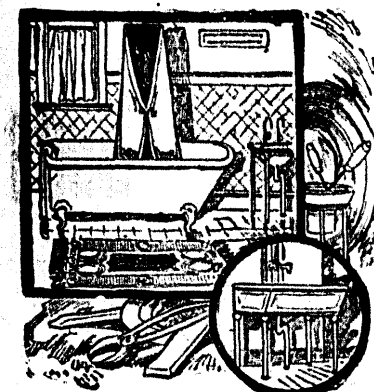

Sincerely yours,
MRS. CHAS. F. BROWN, Vice President Mothers' Club,
21 Cedar Terrace, Hot Springs, Ark."

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was married for five years and gave premature birth to two children. After that I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it changed me from a weak, nervous woman to a strong, happy, and healthy wife within seven months. Within two years a lovely little girl was born which is the pride and joy of our household. If every woman feels as grateful and happy as I do, you must have a host of friends, for every day I bless you for the light, health, and happiness your Vegetable Compound has brought to my home. ## SCHOOL OF HAPPINESS

French Institution to Restore Mankind to Joy.

NEW PROJECT OF PARISIAN DOCTOR

Professors Allege That in Scientific Ways They Can Drive Sorrow From the Mind—Happiness, They Claim, Depends Upon Re-establishment of the Normal System.

The opening of the Ecole de Bonheur (the School of Happiness at Paris has aroused widespread curiosity and interest, especially among Frenchwomen, says the New York Tribune's correspondent. At first an atmosphere of humorous incredulity prevailed, but when the founders of the new movement, Dr. Paul Valentin and his wife, showed that the School of Happiness by no means aspired to provide a mere vague, indefinite road to a sort of terrestrial paradise, but was based on practical, scientific methods and laws, the idea elicited the sympathy and support of a goodly number of prominent men and women. Foremost among the adherents of the new movement toward happiness is Mme. du Gast, the attractive Parisian lady of letters, ballooning and automobile fame.

Dr. Paul Valentin, who opened proceedings with an eloquent address, is a nervous, wiry little man with exceedingly intelligent, sparkling eyes. He studied nervous diseases with the famous Dr. Charcot and has for the last ten years devoted himself to special experiments and investigations in regard to the psychology of modern women from normal and pathological standpoints. Dr. Paul Valentin has succeeded in forming a group of devoted apostles of both sexes, and lectures and courses of instruction were recently begun in Paris at the Institut Rndy, and it is intended later on to arrange for similar courses in the United States, Great Britain, Germany, Austria-Hungary, Italy and Spain.

A fundamental idea of the School of Happiness is that the human race in civilized countries is afflicted with complex maladies and affections which can only be combated by bringing back men and women to the normal condition of cerebral, moral and physical equilibrium; that intense civilization has greatly enlarged and deepened the struggle that has always existed in the human organism between pleasure and beneficial activity on the one hand and pain and pernicious activity on the other. According to the apostles of the new school, happiness depends upon the re-establishment of the normal system. When questioned, Dr. Valentin said: "If all human beings were in a normal condition—that is to say, in the possession of the full sense of their functions in accordance with the requirements of perfect organisms—they would all have the balance of agreeable sensation to their credit, and to them there would be no problem of happiness to solve. Each of our races corresponds with some biological defect, known or unknown, which unites us for correct development. Our faults express intellectual conditions more or less morbid and complicated by nervous congenital deterioration or by nutritive deflections from the cerebral centers. Whether we have to do with irresistible impulse, falling memory, alternative excitement or depression the psychologist always finds behind these apparently spontaneous features the biological, transient or permanent, of a brain fatigued, badly constructed or badly reared."

"On the conditions he treated and cured?"

"Yes. Science possesses a medical treatment for excessive or dangerous passions. Soon we may have an educational prophylaxis of criminality. Mental orthopedics is not an empty phrase. We can teach certain unbalanced minds to examine themselves and those about them, and we can gradually awaken notions of real life by giving them the motive sense of effort, of striving to improve. Thus the psychologist substitutes insensibly, in place of the bad cerebral defects, better habits. He is then able to raise the patient from the suffering that oppresses, from the incoherence that distracts, as well as from the wickedness that exasperates or from the moral weakness that incriminates."

"What are some of the subjects that will be treated in the courses of instruction of the School of Happiness?"

"First of all, the child. Under this caption comes treatment of inherited nervousness, which makes many an infant ready for anger, falsehood, ill-will and crime. Then there will be detailed courses in regard to woman. Other subjects will be treated, such as mystic deviations from the normal conceptions of love and of friendship. A number of lectures will be given on jealousy, its causes and its treatment. Jealousy in nine cases out of ten is merely a sentimental illogism complicated with hypertrophy of self-esteem. There will be investigations of hypochondria, depression affecting the system through sorrow, disappointment or unrequited ambition."

Are Revolving Doors Dangerous?
The Parisian fire brigade, says the London Express, has lodged an objection with the authorities against hotels and public buildings being fitted with revolving doors by reason of the risk to human life in the event of fire and panic.

The Silent Fighters of Japan.
Japanese soldiers fight noiselessly. They have no bands, no drums beat reveille or tattoo, and in action they utter no cheers.

ARMSTRONG & ARMSTRONG,
Special Agents.
FOR SICK AND NERVOUS PEOPLE.

We have a cure for nervous and unsteady people, weak, fleshless people, and pimply, pale or sallow people; people who are troubled with loss of ambition, failing memory, depression of spirits, lack of confidence, nervous headache and wakefulness, all these symptoms are produced by weak nerves brought on by the watery condition of the blood. Make strong, rich red blood, and furnish food for the nerves is the way to stop the source of disease, and cure them is only a question of days. The best flesh and food builder is Dr. Gugg's Blood and Nerve Tonic, in tablet form to take at meal time. Sells at 75c a box or three boxes for $2, at all druggists. People gain from 1 to 3 pounds of solid healthy flesh per week, by the use of this medicine. This is an indication that it is doing good. Lee P. Alcott, Druggist, east side square.

To Raise Portieres.

To prevent portieres catching underneath the door when opened quickly, screw a small ring such as used for picture frames into the center of the door frame. To this fasten a length of blind cord sufficient to reach to the bottom of the curtain. Put another ring in the center of the door at the top, thread the cord through and fasten to the bottom of the curtain, and as the door is opened so the curtain rises.

Delicious Coffee Cake.

To make coffee cake, heat a cup of milk to the scalding point, but do not let it boil. Stir into it while hot two tablespoonfuls of butter, two of sugar and a dash of salt. When blood warm add a half yeast cake dissolved in a scant gill of lukewarm milk and enough flour to make a stiff batter. Cover and let it rise until light. Add a cup of seeded and halved raisins, lightly dredged with flour. Spread a layer of the dough half an inch thick in the bottom of a baking pan, cover and let it rise. Brush with melted butter and sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon. Bake in moderate oven for half an hour, covering with brown paper for the first fifteen minutes.

Wonderful Kitchen Ware.

A visit to the kitchen ware department of a large city store is enough to make the veriest spinster long for a home to furnish if she has a spark of femininity in her makeup.

There are enameled sauce and stew pans of milky whiteness finished with edges of gilt. There are all sorts of cooking utensils, teapots, coffee-pots, preserving kettles, milk boilers, cereal cookers and dishpans which are dainty enough to use on the dining room table. As these will never rust, they are greatly to be desired by the housewife, and although they are rather expensive they are doubtless cheaper in the end than those which cost less, but wear out sooner.—New York Press.

Sterilize Your Household Water.

The sterilization of all water used in and about the house, whether for drinking or not, is advocated by a French hygienic expert, M. Mellere. Boiling will do it, but an addition of one two-hundredth part of hydrogen peroxide will accomplish the same result, as will also the permanganates in about the same proportion. Tincture of iodine may be used for drinking water in the proportion of four drops to an ordinary carafe. There is a slight taste of iodine, but it is not injurious to health. The sterilization, however, lasts for only half an hour.—Success.

Better Odors.

Moth balls, turpentine and even formaldehyde I have been advised to keep out of my house. But why use things so disagreeable? It is the pungency of the odor to which the moth object, says a writer in an exchange. Our grandmothers knew this, using strong but sweet scented lavender and heliotrope. I have for some years been using both with excellent results and the happy consciousness of being pleasantly scented (not reeking of moth balls) to those who may be near me at church or elsewhere.

CAMBERLAIN'S STOMACH AND LIVER TABLETS. UNEQUALLED FOR CONSTIPATION.

Dr. A. R. Kane, a prominent druggist of Baxter Springs, Kansas, says: "Camberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are, in my judgment, the most superior preparation of anything in the world for constipation. They are sure to cleanse and soothe the bowels, and are a great help in all cases of indigestion, flatulence, and other ailments of the stomach and liver."

WOODWORK WORTH $100.000

Many years ago the oak fittings of Winchester college, England, were sold for less than $5,000 to a clergyman in Cornwall. There were panelings, seats, chimney pieces and other work all richly carved by the facetiously named Gilling Gibbons. London Truth says that this collection of priceless carving has now been sold for $100,000 to a Mr. Cooper, who last year purchased Hursley Park, the ancestral seat of the Heathcotes, where it will find an appropriate home. About the same time that the college oak was sold the dean and chapter disposed of some of the cathedral fittings, including the famous oak throne erected by Bishop Treloarney. This almost priceless treasure is also supposed to be somewhere in Cornwall.

A TIMELY SUGGESTION.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be ward off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children, for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take, both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. For sale by all druggists.

ALL OVER THE HOUSE.

How to Practice Economy in Operating the Gas Range.

One of the things in the kitchen that run away with money is the cook stove. If a gas range is used and properly treated it is the greatest economizer of strength, time and fuel. The important thing to bear in mind is that matches are cheaper than gas. Don't leave a burner lighted because you will need it in five or ten minutes. Turn it off as soon as you are through using it; then light it again when you are ready. Don't light up and then go on to fill your kettle or get out your frying pan. Have all in readiness before you light the flame. Don't use the large burners when the smaller ones or the simmerer will do just as well. Turn the burners down so as to use only what gas is needed. See that the flame is blue, not red. The red flame is wasteful, indicating imperfect combustion. If any of the burner holes fill up, clean them out with a wire or remove and boil in a solution of strong soda and water. This last treatment cannot be given, however, with the old style two piece or cement burner. Don't light the oven more than four or seven minutes before using. Longer is waste. Plan the baking and broiling so as to do as much as possible at the same time with the same flame.

If you want to keep anything warm in the upper oven, simply light the oven lighter and let that burn without turning on the gas in the oven burners.

Indian Philosophy.

The old style Indians still are picturesque in the use of language. An attempt was made to force the allotment question to a vote in the Ojibwa Nation recently. This action aroused suspicion and violated the tradition that an Indian statesman should never do anything in a hurry. One of the chiefs, Big Heart by name, was anxious for a vote, but feared to force it, and advised adjournment till the following day. Red Eagle, principal chief, with rings in his ears and his blanket draped majestically about him, said: "We should not do things like a man who drops a live coal in the water and bring everything to an end at once."

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women; regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist it will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. E. W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. box 629, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

READ THIS.

Jacksonville, Fla., Aug. 24, 1901. For twelve years I have suffered from sweet diabetes, and have spent hundreds of dollars with various doctors, with but little benefit. I was recommended to try a bottle of Texas Wonder, all's Great Discovery, and will cheerfully testify to the public that it did me more good than all things else put together, and all together another man. I have persuaded many of my friends to try it.

MATHEW & LLOYD.

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago, Feb. 18.—Wheat.—The opening was firm on strong Liverpool cables, May and July being up 1/4¢ at 89 1/2¢ and 87 1/2¢ respectively. The market was quiet, but prospects of war complications in Europe had been exaggerated traders with bearish proclivities thought wheat should be sold on that account. Snow in the southwest also brought out selling orders. The first half hour May declined to 87 1/2¢, July to 88 1/2¢. On the decline demand became urgent and the market readily advanced. Buying after the early decline was of general character, but all buyers were limited, taking that side. Domestic news was extremely bullish. Scarcity of milling wheat was a feature, and private dispatches stated millers at interior points in Kansas and Oklahoma are paying fancy prices for hard winter varieties. Northwestern advices were of similar tenor. Minneapolis reporting that black, smutty samples sold for 85¢. Seaboard reported foreign situation stronger. With such a state of affairs prices encountered little opposition in the upward course. Late in the session May sold within 1/4¢ of the dollar mark. The close was strong, May up 1/4¢, 89 1/2¢, July higher, 87 1/2¢. On the coast twenty-five boat loads were taken. Liverpool 1/2¢ higher.

Corn.—The market had about the same experience as wheat, with fluctuations being sharp and sudden with speculative feeling nervous on account of foreign situation. There was a good deal for sale early by commission houses, but not much wanted, but later offerings became rather limited, and many early sellers had difficulty in supplying needs when prices started upward. Shorts were fair buyers throughout the day and there was urgent demand from exporters. As the chief factor was scarcity of good corn, May opened 1/4¢ lower to 1/2¢ higher at 55 1/2¢ to 56 1/2¢. After declining to 55 1/2¢ to 56 1/2¢ prices rallied to 56, but reacted on profit-taking. Close was firm, May 1/4¢ better, Liverpool was up 1/4¢ to 56 1/2¢. At the seaboard thirty boat loads were taken.

Oats.—Nervous and influenced largely by wheat and corn. Scarcity had things about their own way, but were inclined to trade on conservative lines owing to uncertainty of the foreign situation. At the close May was up 1/4¢, unchanged, 43 1/4¢.

LIVESTOCK.
Cattle—Receipts, 10,000. Supplies are being kept down by country shippers this week, owing to the recent bad break in prices. Decreased offerings have enabled sellers to make better terms and while thin and half-fat steers are as low as ever, good fat cattle are selling 15¢ to 20¢ higher than last week. Trains to day were very late in arriving and after business was well started there was fair general demand at unchanged prices. Good to prime, $5.00 to $5.25; poor to medium, $4.50 to $4.75; stockers, $3.50 to $4.00; cows, $1.75 to $2.25. Hogs—Receipts, 25,000. Demand was active on local and shipping account and prices were steady. Mixed and butchers', $4.50 to $5.00; good to choice hogs, $5.25 to $5.50; rough heavy, $4.50 to $5.00; light, $4.50 to $5.00; bulk of sales, $4.50 to $5.00. Sheep—Receipts, 15,000. There was active general demand at unchanged prices. Sheep, $3.00 to $3.50; lambs, $4.00 to $4.50.

ST. LOUIS MARKET.
St. Louis, Feb. 18.—Wheat—Cash, $1.01 1/2; May, 95¢.
Corn—Cash, 49¢; May, 50¢.
Oats—Cash, 42¢; May, 43¢.
LIVESTOCK.
Cattle—Receipts, 3,000. Market strong and 10¢ higher. Beef steers, $4.75 to $5.00; stockers and feeders, $2.50 to $3.50; cows and heifers, $2.50 to $3.50. Demand was active on local and shipping account and prices were steady. Mixed and butchers', $4.50 to $5.00; good to choice hogs, $5.25 to $5.50; rough heavy, $4.50 to $5.00; light, $4.50 to $5.00; bulk of sales, $4.50 to $5.00. Sheep—Receipts, 15,000. There was active general demand at unchanged prices. Sheep, $3.00 to $3.50; lambs, $4.00 to $4.50.

LIVERPOOL MARKET.

Corn—Receipts, 35,000 bu.; exports, 61,000 bu. Spot firm; No. 2 yellow, $0.54 and $0.55; No. 2 white, $0.54 and $0.55. Options closed net unchanged; May closed 60 1/2¢ to 61¢.
Oats—Receipts, 20,000 bu.; exports, 300 bu. Spot firm; No. 2 white, standard white and No. 2 white, 54¢.

FINANCIAL MARKET.
New York, Feb. 18.—The stock market dropped into stagnation in the course of the day. Unwillingness of professional traders to follow selling movement of yesterday was striking evidence of rigid limitations upon movement of the current market. Even traders are few and timid and this fact is accepted as common explanation of immobility of the market. There was nothing in today's news to change sentiment over the outlook for stocks. Cessation of selling was evident, however, that traders were timid about following a decline in prices, as they showed themselves to be toward advance of Monday and Tuesday. Closing quotations:
Money on call steady at 1 1/4% per cent; closing bid, 1 1/4%; offered at 1 1/2%. Time loans steady; sixty days and ninety days at 3 1/4% to 3 1/2%; six months at 4 1/4% to 4 1/2%.
Exchange strong. Demand at 48 1/2¢ to 48 3/4¢; sixty days at 48 1/2¢ to 48 3/4¢; Bar silver at 50¢.

The Oldest Inhabitants.

The earth is believed to be a family of turtles which have recently been exhibited in London. The youngest is a trifle over 2,000 years old. Despite their age the turtles appear to be in excellent health, retaining all their faculties and giving every promise of living for many years to come. The turtles were found in the Galapagos islands. Several of the largest weigh as much as 500 pounds. They were found far up on the side of a crater on Albemarle, the largest of the islands.

Detroit's Pill Harvest.

If the annual pill harvest of Detroit was strung on thread, like Christmas popcorn, the rope of pills would reach twice around the earth, with enough over to tie in a bow-knot. If this string of pills was cut in pieces each of the 36,000,000 women and girls in America could have a different necklace of pills for every day in the year, with an extra long one for each Sunday. Detroit produces 4,000,000,000 pills each year.

British Mortality.

In England Roman Catholic priests die at the rate of 18 per 1,000 per year; Protestant clergymen, 11 per 1,000; domestic servants, 8 per 1,000; lawyers, 16 per 1,000; cabmen, 26 per 1,000; soldiers die off at the rate of 5 per 1,000 under normal conditions, while on the battlefield, taken from a record of the past twenty years, death is only at the rate of 15 per 1,000 per year.

Cause of Excitement.

Mr. Peter Thill, our genial blacksmith, now wears a smile as long as the dresses on the new baby girl who arrived Monday night. It is said Peter was so excited Tuesday that he put the shoes of a horse on the wrong feet, so that the poor animal had to walk backward. We extend congratulations. — Hanover (Ill.) Journal.

A Widowers' Memo.

Glasgow has a widowers' home in which any poor man who has lost his wife and has no one to care for his children may rent two rooms for $1.30 a week and pay for meals at cost price. There is room in it for 140 motherless families, and nurses are provided free to take charge of the children.

GERMAN GLEANINGS.

Germany's best customer is Great Britain.

The population of Hamburg on Nov. 1 last was 743,860, an increase of only 14,300 in a year.

The flesh of reindeer may now be bought at any time in the Berlin markets. It is brought frozen from Finland and Lapland.

Berlin uses for the most part filtered river water. To bring water from the Harz mountains would cost for the aqueduct $20,000,000.

At a recent meeting of German theatrical managers in Berlin it was decided that in the interest of the moral atmosphere of the stage it should be made incumbent on managers to supply costumes for the underpaid actresses.

Within seven years Germany has laid 7,573 miles of ocean cable at a cost of $7,000,000. The important ones are: Emden to New York via the Azores, 4,813 miles; Shanghai to Tsintau and Cheru, 723 miles, and Germany to England, 280 miles.

Rigid Formality.

Mrs. Van Rensselaer Cruger tells a story of a Washington hostess who invited an attaché of one of the foreign legations to dine with her. The invitation was formally accepted, but on the morning of the appointed day a note, written by the foreigner's valet, was received, which read: "Mr. Blank regrets very much that he will not be able to be present at Mrs. Swift's dinner tonight, as he is dead."—Philadelphia Ledger.

CANE RUSH

Clash of Freshmen and Sophomores on College Hill—Class Rivalry Keen.

The campus of Illinois college Thursday morning was the scene of a lively conflict between the freshmen and sophomores. Wednesday evening the sophomores held their annual feast, when many plans for entering chapel on the morrow with their new canes were formulated. Their expectations were doomed to disappointment, as the freshmen were also making plans.

A few days ago the freshmen appeared in chapel with white caps and sweaters with the letters "I. C." on them in black. At this time the soph's, with the memory of earlier defeats, did not attempt any resistance and thought that they would be allowed to enter chapel peaceably. But they were mistaken. The freshmen had learned of their plans and arranged for a systematic resistance. At 9 o'clock the sophomores started from the dormitory. They were headed by "Billy" Osborne with his drum and a fife. They marched gaily towards chapel all unconscious of danger. When they attempted to mount the chapel steps they were confronted by the freshmen. In a few minutes the ground was covered with broken canes and wrestling men. The fight was furious during chapel time, but the sophomores were finally forced to return to the dormitory without having reached the chapel door, and with only fragments of their splendid canes.

When the other classes came out of chapel all that was to be seen was a crowd of cheering freshmen, a column of retreating sophomores and the ground strewn with pieces of canes. The sophomores threaten dire revenge for the insult to their dignity.

In honor of their victory over the sophomores, the freshmen held a feast in the parlors of Vickery & Errigan Thursday evening. The gathering was enthusiastic and a great deal of loyalty and class patriotism was expressed. President R. O. Post acted as toastmaster and after a splendid meal the following toasts were given:

Our Future Course—F. E. Gault.
Our Past—G. J. Oren.
70's Reception to 'New Men'—S. McKimney.

Our Fair Sisters—T. E. Wylder.
What We Will Do in the Future—Meet—William Harmon.

How It Feels to be Canned—W. L. Simpson.

The Cane Rush Feeling—R. Stiff.

DREXEL ROBBERY.

In the Journal a few mornings ago there was a report of a rumor to the effect that there had been a robbery at the Drexel, the amount of money that was missing from the cash register being $116. A statement was made at that time by the management of the Drexel that there was nothing in the rumor, but the object of this statement was to keep matters quiet while the sleuths on the case brought in the guilty parties. The parties who were suspected were closely watched and finally brought into the toils, where a confession was recovered. Mr. Franks, when interviewed Thursday evening, said he had nothing to say, only that he had recovered the entire sum of money taken from his place of business and the party who had been under suspicion proved to be the one who had taken it.

M. P. L. COUNCIL.

M. P. L. Council, No. 19, held their regular meeting in their hall Thursday evening, a good attendance being present. After the regular routine of business a candy pull and social time was held, several recitations being given by Miss Margaret Moynihan, which were greatly enjoyed.

THE DEATH RECORD.

BLIMLING.

Word has been received in this city of the recent death of John Blimling at the Old Folks' home in Peoria, where he had been an inmate for some time. He was 84 years of age and formerly resided east of Jacksonville, where he owned a vineyard. About twenty years ago he left here, going to California. He is survived by his wife, who is an inmate of the Old Folks' home at Peoria, and one daughter, residing at Santa Barbara, Cal.

The funeral will be held in Peoria Saturday morning at 8 o'clock.

TICKNOR.

Mrs. Flora Ticknor, wife of L. F. Ticknor, passed peacefully from earth at 11:30 o'clock Thursday morning, at the family home five miles northwest of Jacksonville, at the age of 76 years. Death was due to pneumonia after an illness of only a few days' duration.

Mrs. Ticknor's maiden name was Thompson. She was the daughter of John and Laura Thompson and was born near Versailles, N. Y., Oct. 30, 1827. June 3, 1855, she was united in marriage to Mr. L. F. Ticknor and they came to Illinois soon after and resided for a time near Concord, Morgan county. They then removed to the farm where Mr. Ticknor now lives and where they continued to reside ever since their removal there.

Mrs. Ticknor was a devoted member of the Presbyterian church, having become a member of that denomination early in life. She lived a sincere, earnest and faithful Christian life and her many noble traits of character were evinced by the many good acts of her every day life. Her gentle disposition and kindly manner had won for her a very large number of admiring friends, whose hearts will be burdened with sorrow to learn of her death. She took a great interest in her home, always seeking to make it entertaining and pleasant, and in her children to whom she was very greatly devoted. They, together with the aged husband who has trod life's pathway with her so long, have suffered a loss which only those who have suffered a similar one may know.

The following named children survive her: LeRoy, Elmer E. H. and Harry M. Ticknor, all of Jacksonville, and Mrs. Alena Florence Losce, of Tacoma, Wash.

Funeral services will be conducted from Mt. Zion church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. R. L. Steed, of Ashland, and Rev. J. L. Wylder, of this city, officiating. Interment will be made in Diamond Grove cemetery.

HALEY.

Mrs. Margaret Haley, aged 76 years, died at her home at 466 South Clay avenue, Thursday morning at 2 o'clock.

The deceased's maiden name was Margaret Corcoran and she was born in Cork, Ireland, where she lived until 20 years of age, when she came to America. She was a resident of Indianapolis for many years and was married in that city in 1859 to Richard Haley, who passed to his reward nearly twenty years ago.

Mrs. Haley was one of the older residents of this city and county and she was well known and highly respected by a very large circle of acquaintances. She was ever thoughtful of the members of her family, who always found her ready to sacrifice everything for their good. She was kind to her neighbors and friends and in turn was held in high esteem by them.

She is survived by five children: Richard, Edward and James Haley, of this city; Robert Haley, of Pond Creek, Okla., and Mrs. Margaret Thompson, of Rohrer.

The remains will be taken to Indianapolis for burial, the funeral being held in the St. John's Catholic church, and interment will be made in Calvary cemetery in that city.

THIS IS THE DRUG STORE YOU ARE LOOKING FOR

How do we know? We don't know. We only think; but we think hard and we base our thinking on the fact that we have told a lot of people that this is the drug store they were looking for—and they came, looked it over, traded with us, and believed what we said. That's why we said it to you. Come and see. It won't kill you—and we might be right in your case, too.

LARGE MEETINGS

Interest shown in Scoville Revival on the Increase—Many Conversions.

An audience which taxed the seating capacity of the Christian church to the utmost gathered last evening to hear Evangelist Scoville preach upon the theme, "The Open Door." After the usual song service, Rev. R. F. Thrapp read for the scripture lesson the third chapter of John. Mr. Helm sang "Ye Must Be Born Again," the congregation joining in the chorus; and Miss Emma Wharton and Mr. Helm sang "Lead Me Gently, Father."

Brief prayers were offered by Mr. Helm, Mr. Miller and Evangelist Scoville, after which Mr. Scoville preached from John 3:9, "I am the door; by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture."

The sermon was a powerful one, and was heard with profound interest. Deep feeling was manifest throughout the congregation during the entire service, and when the invitation was extended twenty persons stepped out to accept the Word. Before receiving the confessions, Rev. Mr. Thrapp called attention to the fact that Mr. Scoville was a son to Christ, and not to himself—that his plea was through the Word and for the Word. At the close of the services twenty persons were baptized.

The remarkable success of these meetings may be known by the fact that in a ten days' meeting ninety-seven conversions have resulted, sixty-eight of which were within the past five days, an average of over thirteen a day. The interest in the meetings is at its height, as was evidenced by the fact that by a unanimous vote of those present last evening, Mr. Scoville was asked to continue the revival indefinitely.

Early in the meetings Mr. Scoville offered $100 to any person who would find in the Bible a verse telling of the sprinkling or pouring of pure water only, being used as a form of Christian baptism. He said at the time that if there were such a verse, he ought to know about it, and that it would be worth $100 to find it out. He received a letter yesterday, claiming the money; but owing to lack of time last evening postponed the reading of the same until to night. At the evening service the letter will be read before the congregation.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.

Carl Warner was the victim of a very pleasant surprise at his home Wednesday evening, it being his 20th birthday. About twenty young people assembled at his home, without his knowledge of their coming, and proceeded to have a good time, indulging in various games and music. Mr. Warner was the recipient of numerous handsome presents.
